

Value Relating is a new kind of service. To reach its full potential to resolve all needs, its own enterprise needs require due attention. That's where you can add value, to enable this enterprise to add value to us all.

ENTERPRISE NEED POSTING

EN-002

Value Relating invites your response to enterprise need 001:

I, Steph, need family members to enroll in eCourse, go through course, and provide a course review that inspires paid enrollments.

Value Relating needs you to...

Take eCourse

P002 | EN002

to ensure the course is free of bugs, to optimize the course as a valuable experience for enrolled students, resulting in engaging feedback with an authentic testimonial that attracts more students.

As an Upwork.com project for a freelancer: "I need candid review of my online course"

Description

This project picks up where the "test sales funnel" gig ends (EN001). Completion demonstrates your valuable input to all things Value Relating. You will need access to the Internet with a laptop or tablet. The process is not yet ready for viewing on smartphones. That's a solution-based Enterprise Need waiting to be filled.

By accepting this project, you will go to Udemy with this URL to take the course for free. Only eight available, each expiring at the end of October 2017. You 1) enroll in the course, 2) take the course, and 3) complete it within the agreed upon time. Along the way, you identify the course's strong points and weak points, and communicate these to us in advance of leaving any course review, to give us ample time to take action on needed improvements.

Finally, you provide an inspiring testimonial that measurably results in increased student enrollments. You are to use the recommended format the course provides: a "glow" (what you liked about the course), a "grow" (what you felt needed improvement, if any), and a "go" (one thing that would improve the course for you, if any). You fulfill the purpose of this project when you leave a "glow-grow-go" testimonial that effectively models this format to future students of the course.

Value Relating offers you in return...

Three-tiered value

P002

Since this is not some “job” holding back your full potential, you will not be enslaved to objectifying wage-labor. Value Relating offers three levels of return on your investment, from the familiar financial compensation, to social proof of your marketable value, onto meaningful value for your life’s purpose.

1) Economic

Project-level tasks tap into a significant skillset, so financial compensation increases. The process is to take no more than a week of your invested time. Estimated time to complete: 4 hours. Estimated budget: $130, distributed among eight in the order of completion, to those completing by 10/31/2017 11:59 pm.

1 st to finish	2 nd to finish	3 rd to finish	4 th to finish	5 th to finish	6 th to finish	7 th to finish	8 th to finish
$ 25.00	$ 22.50	$ 20.00	$ 17.50	$ 15.00	$ 12.50	$ 10.00	$ 7.50

Distribution follows revenue resulting from your Udemy course review inspiring paid enrollments.

2) Social

For project-entrepreneurs, such as those on sites like Upwork, can provide you with an earned positive review and rating.

For job seekers, pursuing a career, we provide you opportunity to numerically demonstrate your marketable talents on a résumé. For example, “corrected # eCourse errors, resulting in a #% increase in student enrollments.” Demonstrating marketable social skills can be put in a recommendation letter.

3) Purposeful

For lovers of life, Value Relating invites you to join us to find and pursue each other’s meaningful purpose in life. Successful completion of this project can demonstrate to us your emerging interest in “resolving all needs.” We seek to help each other find and passionately pursue each one’s life purpose.

We look for trouble. Not to create it, but to resolve the stubborn needs behind it. “A problem is a need resisting resolution.” By helping us improve conversion rates, you get a taste of how your talents can add enriching meaning to all our lives.

Move onto challenging solution-based tasks, to position yourself to merit a percent of quarterly sales. When you improve our lives, we work hard to improve yours, as your improvements expand our capacity to resolve all needs.

If interested in this project, but need more information, contact us here. Refer to ENP002. If ready to take on this project now, then
